

Recall Notice

Bowflex® Power Pro® and Bowflex® Ultimate™ Fitness Machines

In voluntary cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, Nautilus Direct (doing business as Bowflex) is voluntarily recalling the Bowflex Power Pro® home gym WITHOUT a Lat Tower purchased prior to October 2002, the Bowflex Power Pro® home gym WITH a Lat Tower (the XTLU, XLU and XL) purchased prior to May 1, 2004 and the Bowflex Ultimate™ home gym purchased prior to May 1, 2004. Nautilus has received reports of injuries occurring on the Bowflex Power Pro® home gym WITHOUT a Lat Tower when the incline support bracket on the underside of the bench has broken, causing the bench or seat to move suddenly and unexpectedly. Nautilus has also received reports of injuries, including two reports of lacerations requiring stitches, which occurred on the Bowflex Power Pro® home gym WITH a Lat Tower and Bowflex Ultimate™ when the seat or incline bench moved suddenly and unexpectedly.

If you have responded to the first recall or purchased a Bowflex Ultimate™ directly from Bowflex a repair kit has been sent to you. If you do not receive your kit by December 15, 2004, did not purchase directly from Bowflex or did not respond to our first recall, please call (800) 820-8604 to order a replacement kit. The following Bowflex® home gyms are not affected: Bowflex Ultimate™ 2, Bowflex Xtreme™, Bowflex Xtreme™ 2, Bowflex Sport™, Bowflex Elite™ and Bowflex Motivator®.

Because your safety is very important to us, stop using your bench in the incline position until you have installed your free safety repair kit.

At Bowflex, your safety and satisfaction is our concern. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused and look forward to providing you a safety repair kit for your Bowflex Power Pro® or Bowflex Ultimate™ fitness machine.
